

ENCHANTED KINGDOM WELCOMES CHRISTMAS WITH ITS ENCHANTING SEASON OF FAMILY CAMPAIGN

Enchanted Kingdom, the first and only world-class theme park in the Philippines, invites Filipinos to experience even more magic during the holidays with the launch of its Enchanting Season of Family campaign this December.

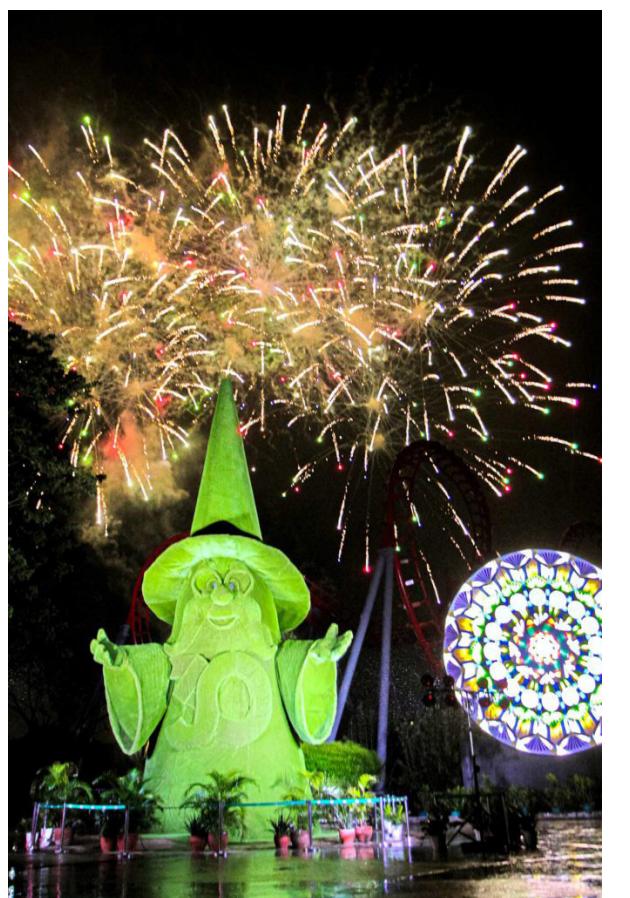

As part of EK's 30th anniversary, this year's campaign highlights the family as the heart of every Filipino's Christmas tradition. Apart from its over 30 rides and attractions, the month-long festivities offer exciting holiday experiences, including new seasonal shows, festive displays, and breathtaking spectacles that will allow countless Filipino families to create even more forever enchanting memories together.

The magical pre-Christmas event on November 29 set the festive mood through the carol performances by invited guests and choir. This magical celebration was also graced by the presence of Santa Rosa City Vice Mayor Arnold B. Arcillas, who encouraged everyone to embrace hope and joy this holiday season.

Park guests had a magical time singing their favorite Yuletide carols, trying out exciting activities, and winning enchanting prizes at the Caroloke Christmas Caravan, a special holiday truck brought by Coca-Cola at the Spaceport Grounds.

EK Storyverse characters joined in the festivities as they greeted guests in front of Eldar's Theater prior to the annual lighting of EK's 22-foot Grand Parol. Aside from this, 100 other colorful parols lit up the AGILA The EKsperience: SARIBUHAY.

EK also introduced Eldar's Evergreen Topiary, a never-been-seen greenery installation featuring the iconic figure of EK's jolly and wise wizard. Set to become a year-round attraction, this one-of-a-kind display is a part of EK's ongoing efforts to create magical and sustainable experiences at the Park, especially during seasonal celebrations.

Eldar the Wizard topped off the night with the Forever Enchanted Fireworks Show, synchronized to the tune of EK's 30th anniversary theme song written and sung by the theme park's homegrown P-pop girl group, SMS.

MORE HOLIDAY MAGIC THIS DECEMBER

Filipinos can create even more enchanting memories with their loved ones this Christmas as the Park opens daily starting December 13, 2025 until January 4, 2026.

Guests can continuously enjoy EK's over 30 rides and attractions, including the iconic Space Shuttle and AGILA The EKsperience: SARIBUHAY, which were relaunched as part of EK's 30th anniversary last October.

Aside from the vibrant decors and displays, EK will continue to bring enchantment through its new zone shows and other special Christmastime performances around the Park this December.

Nighttime at Brooklyn Place will come to life with colorful lights dancing to the tune of popular Christmas songs at Eldar's Symphony of Lights and Sounds.

Ultimately, Echoes of Enchantment Parade is set in making its return with a holiday twist, leveling up the in-park night experience through a series of vibrant floats accompanied by the EK Storyverse characters as it makes its way to the Park's lake.

themed "Dugong Buhay Aming Alay Bilang mga Makabagong Bayani Tungo sa Matatag na Sandigan ng Bagong Pilipinas" (Our Blood is Our Gift as Modern Heroes Towards a Strong Foundation for a New Philippines), clearly signals that our military reservists view their commitment not just through drills and defenses, but through life-saving civic action.

At the Reserve Command in Camp Riego de Dios, Tanza, Cavite, and presumably in sites across the country, we see a potent mix of duty and humanity. Reservists, alongside community partners, gathered not to take, but to give the most valuable resource: life itself. The images show scenes of meticulous medical screening and the quiet, solemn act of donation.

CHRISTMAS IN THE TIME OF HARDSHIP: FILIPINOS' RESILIENT SPIRIT SHINES THROUGH 2025

As December unfolds across the Philippines, the familiar glow of parols, twinkling lights, and the aroma of bibingka and puto bumbong remind us that Christmas is near. Yet, for many, the celebrations this year are tempered by the tragedies that have marked 2025—typhoons that devastated communities, economic challenges that tightened household budgets, and losses that have left families mourning.

Despite these hardships, Filipinos continue to demonstrate an extraordinary resilience that has long defined the nation's holiday spirit. Christmas in the Philippines has never been just about material gifts; it is a celebration of family, faith, and hope. Even in times of adversity, people find ways to share joy—whether through simple gatherings, communal prayers, or acts of generosity.

Communities have shown remarkable solidarity this year. Neighborhoods damaged by storms have come together to rebuild, sharing resources and lending hands. Families affected by economic difficulties have found creative ways to celebrate: hand-made decorations, potluck-style Noche Buena meals, and heartfelt exchange of homemade gifts are common, emphasizing that thoughtfulness often outweighs expense.

Religious traditions, too, have taken on deeper meaning in 2025. The nine-day Simbang Gabi, carol singing, and midnight Masses are not just rituals—they are beacons of hope, offering comfort to those who have endured loss. For many, faith remains the anchor that sustains them through uncertainty, and the Christmas season and a deep sense of responsibility to the nation's health infrastructure. It is the clearest way for the "Makabagong Bayani" (Modern Heroes) to build a "Matatag na Sandigan" (Strong Foundation) for the Philippines.

The success of such an endeavor relies heavily on collective effort, and the long list of recognized Community Partners—including civic groups like

Rotary and media organizations like ABS-CBN Lingkod Kapamilya—underscores that national resilience is a team sport. The military provides the structure and the manpower; the community provides the crucial partnership and support. This blood drive is a symbolic statement: in an era defined by complexity, the most immediate and profound impact a public servant can make is through simple, selfless giving. The blood collected today is not just a unit of life for a patient in need; it is tangible proof that the spirit of heroism is alive and well, pulsating through the veins of our reserve forces and their dedicated community allies. It is a powerful foundation upon which the future Philippines must be built.

Kawit LGU Shows Support for Solo Parents Through Orientation and Aid Distribution

KAWIT, Cavite — Ipinamalas ng Pamahalaang Bayan ng Kawit ang pusong malasakit nito sa mga solo parent sa isinagawang Single Parent Orientation na pinangunahan ng Municipal Social Welfare and Development (MSWD) nitong Biyernes. Bukod sa pagbibigay ng gabay at mahalahang impormasyon, isinabay din sa aktibidad ang pamamahagi ng subsidiya para sa mga rehistradong solo parent. Layunin ng programa na magbigay-suporta sa kanilang pangangailangan at kilalan ang hamon na kanilang hinaharap bilang nag-iisang tagapagtuyos ng pamilya. Ayon sa MSWD, mahalahang mabigyan ng sapat na kaalaman at tulong ang mga solo parent upang mas mapalakas ang kanilang kakayahang tugunan ang pang-araw-araw na pangangailangan ng kanilang mga anak, lalo na sa harap ng doble responsibilidad at emosyon na hamon. Binigyang-pugay ng lokal na pamahalaan ang katatagan at sakripisyo ng mga solo parent at tiniyak ang patuloy na suporta ng pamahalaang bayan sa panamagitan ng mga programang naglalayong pangalagaan ang kapanan ng kanilang pamilya.

Japanese company's Project Build Up to help PWDs in Batangas has three key objectives: to engage 100 PWD participants, select at least five business teams for intensive training and mentoring, and provide cash grants or livelihood assistance to qualified business plans.

ASSIST will conduct screening to identify PWDs with existing enterprises or PWD-led groups with promising business ideas. Selected finalists will undergo training and mentorship covering business modeling, product development and costing, financial literacy, bookkeeping, branding, and digital marketing. Participants will later pitch their business proposals to qualify for cash grants to support their start-ups.

BATANGAS CITY — A total of 100 Persons with Disabilities (PWDs) from the municipality of Malvar, Batangas are set to benefit from Project Build Up, a livelihood and entrepreneurship initiative of Japan Tobacco International (JTI) in partnership with ASSIST (Asia Society for Social Improvement and Sustainable Transformation) and the local government of Malvar.

The project was officially launched on December 5, 2025, at the San Pedro I Gymnasium in Malvar as part of JTI's Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) programs, which aim to expand opportunities for PWDs in communities where the company operates.

According to Franz Rana of ASSIST, Project Build Up is designed to uplift PWDs by providing them with skills training, livelihood support, and employment opportunities. He explained that the program

Following the launch, JTI and the Malvar LGU will conduct community briefings and coordination activities until January 2026, with screening and profiling of participants scheduled by mid-month. An Entrepreneurial Bootcamp and weekly mentorship sessions will run from February to April 2026, while business plan finalization and pitch coaching are set for May 2026.

The program will culminate in a PWD Enterprise Day in June 2026, featuring final business pitches, a PWD Livelihood Fair, and an awards and product showcase.

Annaliza Bagtingon, head of the Malvar Persons with Disability Affairs Office (PDAO), expressed full support for the initiative, underscoring its importance in advancing the welfare and economic empowerment of PWDs in the municipality.

TANAY, RIZAL — The 4th Howitzer Platoon, Bravo Battery, 5th Field Artillery Battalion, Artillery Regiment, Philippine Army culminated its Field Artillery Gunnery Proficiency Training (FAGPT) through a Live Fire Exercise (LFE) at Doña Josefa Firebase, Fort Magsaysay, Nueva Ecija on 13-14 December 2025.

The 2-week training aimed at sharpening the knowledge and skills of the 4th Howitzer Platoon's gun crew, further evaluating their technical proficiency based on their respective designations in the gunnery team. They demonstrated their enhanced skills as they efficiently delivered fire missions during the LFE. /PR

This initiative reflects the unit's commitment not only in ensuring highly capable Howitzer firing units manned by highly skilled personnel but also in equipping responsive artillery reservists who exhibit confidence and competence in performing their mission at any given time. /PR

CAYETANO...

Senate Minority Leader Alan Peter Cayetano on Tuesday urged the government to assure Senator Ronald "Bato" dela Rosa of his rights and due process amid reports of his impending arrest by the International Criminal Court (ICC).

"Napaka-importante kasi na may sistema tayo ng hustisa sa bansa at ang korte ang nakakasakop... Ang gobyerno dapat ina-assure si Senator Bato na merong proseso," he told reporters on the sidelines of the December 2 plenary session.

Cayetano was responding to a question on what the Minority Bloc intends to do regarding the continuing absence of dela Rosa from the Senate since session resumed on November 10, 2025.

Ombudsman Jesus Crispin Remulla had earlier announced that the ICC had issued an arrest warrant against dela Rosa in relation to his role as Philippine National Police (PNP) Chief in implementing the Duterte administration's war on drugs.

To date, the ICC has yet to confirm reports it had issued an arrest warrant for the senator.

"Wala akong problema kung sasabihin ng gobyerno na, 'Kapag hinuli iyan, pwede siyang pumunta ng korte.' Kami mismo sa Minority, at least ako, hahamunin ko siya. 'Pumasok ka, responsibility mo iyan,'" the Minority Leader said.

He also called on the Senate leadership to stand up for dela Rosa in ensuring legal protection.

"I'll make it simple: Kung may lumabas na warrant of arrest against a senator, dapat niyang harapin iyon... But this is a different case. This is a case where the Senate itself – the leadership at kaming lahat sa minority at majority – should stand up for a senator and ask, 'Is he getting the legal protection that every Filipino should get?'" he said.

Cayetano said this uncertainty is likely the reason dela Rosa has yet to attend the Senate session. "Hindi siya makatapak dito (sa Senado) kasi walang guarantee na hindi siya aarestuhin at ide-deport sa The Hague na walang say ang Philippine courts. Ang hinihingi lang ni Senator Bato ay katiyakan na kung may warrant of arrest, maka-kapunta muna siya sa ating courts," he said.

The senator also dismissed the possibility of an ethics case being filed against dela Rosa in relation to his absences.

"Napaka-illogical na mag-prosper yung ethics case. Kung mag-file pwede. Ang question, may ground ba? May threat siya against his liberty," he said.

Earlier this year, former President Rodrigo Duterte was arrested by Interpol on an ICC warrant for crimes against humanity after returning from Hong Kong. Without intervention from local courts, Duterte was immediately flown to The Hague, Netherlands.

Cayetano cited this precedent in urging the government to assure dela Rosa of a fair legal process.

"Personal kong panawawito, hindi pa namin pinag-usapan sa Minority... Kasi kung sasabihin na any time pwede kang damputin at dalhin sa ibang bansa... When your life and liberty are threatened, you really think of options," he said.

Cayetano said the question is not why dela Rosa is absent but "why there is no assurance from the government that his rights will be protected."

As a lawyer, he stressed the need to elevate the stature of local courts more than international ones in resolving such cases.

"Baka sa kanila, ang view nila ay pwedeng dalhin sa The Hague. Abogado ako. Never ko pwedeng maging view na inutil ang Philippine courts. Wala pa akong nakikita ang treaty o batas natin na pwedeng damputin ka na lang. Kahit doon sa mga treaties natin na pagka may crime dito or doon, pwede ka munang dumulog sa korte natin," the senator said.

"That's my personal opinion that the leadership of the Senate should protect the rights of every single Filipino," he added. ###

The "Barangay Tanod Day" aims to recognize the vital role of Barangay Tanod in maintaining peace and order within local communities. As part of the program, cash incentives were distributed to Barangay Tanod from all 47 barangays of Bacoor City.

Barangay Captains, barangay officials, and staff were also present to show their support, underscoring the city government's appreciation for the Tanod's unwavering commitment and invaluable service to the people of Bacoor. /PR

Cavite Aligns MSME Programs With MSMED Plan 2025–2028 to Drive Inclusive Growth

IMUS CITY — A total of 525 students from 30 schools across Cavite gathered at the City of Imus Sports Complex on November 27 for the 2025 Cavite Entrepreneurship Students Conference, a province-wide initiative aimed at preparing young Caviteños for the future of business and innovation.

Organized by the Office of the Provincial Cooperative Development Officer (OPCDO), the conference carried the theme "Empowering Future Entrepreneurs through Digitalization, Sustainability, and Innovation."

Provincial and local leaders opened the event with messages underscoring the vital role of youth in driving economic growth and community development.

A major highlight of the conference was the keynote address of Senator Paolo Benigno "Bam" Aquino IV, Chairperson of the Senate Committee on Science and Technology, who encouraged students to pursue entrepreneurship grounded in creativity, social responsibility, and innovation.

Participants took part in a series of learning sessions led by industry experts and academic leaders. Dr. Leo Manansala, Vice Dean of the College of Professional and Graduate Studies of De La Salle University-Dasmariñas, discussed the start-up mindset; Julius Tibayan, owner of Coidado con el Corazon, shared insights on sustainable entrepreneurship; and Prof. Ronilo M. Balbieran, Vice President of Research and Institutional Development of REID Foundation, highlighted the role of digital transformation and technology in business growth.

REID MARTIRES CITY — The province of Cavite took a major step toward strengthening support for micro, small, and medium enterprises (MSMEs) as key stakeholders convened for a consultative meeting on aligning local programs with the Micro, Small and Medium Enterprise Development (MSMED) Plan 2025–2028 on December 4 at the New Provincial Government Center.

The conference concluded with the Search for the Most Innovative and Sustainable Products, recognizing student-led business concepts that demonstrated creativity, environmental responsibility, and market potential. Swizzle Sparks of the City College of Tagaytay won first place, followed by Pelelouis of De La Salle University-Dasmariñas in second place, and Tamies Brites of Cavite State University-Imus Campus in third.

In her welcome remarks, OPCDO Officer-in-Charge Myrachel P. Cuadra emphasized that sustainable MSME growth is best achieved through strong inter-agency convergence. Messages of support were also delivered by Sherry S. Loyola, OPCDO Livelihood Division Head and Chairperson of the PGCECC Multi-Purpose Cooperative, and DTI Cavite OIC Provincial Director Lilibeth R. Chavez, both underscoring the need for resilient and inclusive MSME programs.

Providing direction for the discussions, Liza C. Gabatan, OPCDO Entrepreneurial Division Head, outlined the objectives of the meeting and highlighted the importance of translating policy into concrete, on-the-ground impact.

A key highlight of the morning session was the presentation of the MSMED Plan 2025–2028 by Susan Mae Salonga, Assistant Director of the DTI-Bureau of Small and Medium Enterprise Development (BSMED). Her presentation of national MSME priorities was followed by an interactive discussion, enabling participants to identify opportunities for alignment at the provincial and local levels.

Stakeholders also reviewed existing MSME programs and services collated by OPCDO, promoting transparency and identifying areas for complementation. In the afternoon, participants engaged in workshop sessions to align local initiatives with national strategies and develop actionable plans.

The consultative meeting concluded with the presentation of a harmonized Cavite MSME Development Plan, identification of convergence opportunities, and a Pledge of Support and Commitment, reinforcing the collective resolve of partner agencies to work in synergy rather than in silos.

The activity marked a significant milestone in institutionalizing program convergence in Cavite, ensuring that MSME interventions are coordinated, inclusive, and responsive—paving the way for sustained and shared economic growth across the province. /PR

PGC Honors BHWs and BNS with Incentive Distribution in Tanza

Workers naman ang nabigyan ng P24.48 milyon bilang pagkilala sa kanilang mahalagang papel sa paghahatid ng pangunahing serbisyon pangkalusugan at nutrisyon sa mga komunidad sa lalawigan.

Dumalo at nagbigay ng mensahe ng pasasalamat sina 7th District Representative Ping Remulla, 7th District Board Members Aldrin Anacon at Camille Del Rosario, at Tanza Mayor Archangelo "SM" Matro, na kapwa nagpahayag ng kanilang papuri sa dedikasyon at walang sawang paglilingkod ng mga BHW at BNS, lalo na sa pagsusulong ng kalusugan sa antas-barangay.

Binigyang-diin sa aktibidad ang patuloy na suporta ng Pamahalaang Panlalawigan ng Cavite sa mga manggagwawang pangkalusugan, at muling pinagtibay na ang sakripisyo at dedikasyon ng mga BHW at BNS ay nanatiling haligi ng epektibo at tumutugong serbisyon pangkalusugan sa buong Cavite.

Sa kabuuan, 921 Barangay Nutrition Scholars ang tumanggap ng incentibo na nagkakahalaga ng P9.384 milyon, habang 2,400 Barangay Health
