

CMDI RECOGNIZES THE PRESIDENT COMMISSIONER OF FDS INDONESIA AS HONORARY DEAN

Pak Otto Toto Sugiri, the President Commissioner of Fortress Data Services in Indonesia gave his inspirational message to the academic year 2023-2024 graduates of CMDI Bay Campus.

The CARD-MRI Development Institute (CMDI), Inc. awarded Pak Otto Toto Sugiri, the President Commissioner of Fortress Data Services (FDS) Indonesia, as the "Honorary Dean" of Information and Communications Technology in its Sixth Commencement Exercise at the CMDI Gymnasium in Brgy. Tranca Bay, Laguna, on July 26, 2024.

The award serves as recognition for his important role as a leader and a teacher, pushing through innovative technology not just in Indonesia but around the world.

Pak Toto started as an IT general manager at Bank Bali in 1983. He also established PT Sigma Cipta Caraka in 1989 and PT Indointernet Tbk in 1994. From 2012 to 2016, he became the President Commissioner of PT DCI Indonesia Tbk, and from 2016 until now, he has been its President Director. Aside from that, he was also the mentor for the new technopreneurs in Indonesia, demonstrating his expertise in IT. Pak Otto also served as the CMDI graduation's guest speaker. He shared three key lessons with the graduates of CMDI Bay: first, to be a good person and add value to the people around you to create positive change; second, to embrace failures and challenges as learning experiences; and third, to dream and think big and never settle for something small.

According to CARD MRI Founder and Chairman Emeritus Dr. Jaime Aristotle B. Alip, the award given to Pak Toto was very relevant and timely due to his significant contribution to CARD MRI. "The CARD MRI and FDS collaboration has built a bridge for innovative technologies to become more accessible for clients and staff. I believe that the life and career of Pak Toto will inspire graduates to create a better and stronger future," he said. /PR

TAAL...

CALAMBA CITY Laguna (PIA) – Authorities continue to monitor the activities of Taal Volcano as it continues to log volcanic earthquakes indicating a low level of volcanic unrest. The Philippine Institute of Volcanology and Seismology (PHIVOLCS) said in its 24-hour observation bulletin from May 1 to 5, the volcano remains under Alert Level 1. The highest recorded volcanic earthquake was at 74 on May 2, while 6 volcanic tremors that lasted from two to eight minutes were recorded on May 4. On May 5, PHIVOLCS recorded 71 volcanic earthquakes, including 11 volcanic tremors that lasted from one to two minutes. Sulfur dioxide emitted slightly decreased—from 1213 tonnes per day on April 30 to 977 tonnes per day as of May 2. PHIVOLCS observed an increase of plume, or the buoyant mixture of volcanic particles and gas rises from the atmosphere. From May 1 to 4, weak emission was observed, while on the recent bulletin plume shows moderate emission with 1200 meters tall, and the direction is generally south. According to the statement released by the Office of Civil Defense Calabarzon, Director Carlos Eduardo E. Alvarez III, “The alert level 1 of Taal volcano and the weak tremors experienced are considered common.” The OCD underscores that the Regional Disaster Risk Reduction and Management Council

(RDRRMC) Calabarzon Emergency Operation Center with the DOST-PHIVOLCS remain on blue alert. “For the residents near Taal volcano, be alert, prepared, and stay calm. We remind the public to continue monitoring the official advisories and bulletins of [OCD and PHIVOLCS] and local government,” Alvarez said. Entry to Taal Volcano Island is prohibited, particularly near the Main Crater and Daang Kastila fissures while aircrafts are advised against getting close to the volcano. PHIVOLCS reminded the public that there will be possible phreatic explosions, volcanic quakes, minor ashfall, and gas emissions. (KA-PIA4A)

CAYETANO...

Senator Alan Peter Cayetano on Wednesday assured the public that the construction of the New Senate Building (NSB) is proceeding without delay and with an emphasis on cost efficiency.

"Full steam ahead, hindi madi-delay at ibinababa y'ung presyo [ng gusali]," Cayetano said in a media interview at the Senate on April 30, 2025.

Cayetano, who chairs the Senate Committee on Accounts overseeing the project, said preparations are underway for a briefing and site visit, possibly next week, depending on the schedule of Senate President Francis "Chiz" Escudero.

"I'll try to get his schedule next week... But kung hindi man, I'll just give you a one-pager so that you know the direction [of the project]," he told reporters.

The senator also expressed appreciation to former senator Panfilo "Ping" Lacson and Senator Nancy Binay, who previously chaired the accounts committee, saying the current efforts build on the transparency and direction they helped establish.

"We owe to both Senator Lacson and Senator Nancy na transparent na makita nila y'ung direction at y'ung findings," he said.

Cayetano said about 75 percent of the committee's comprehensive report on the construction of the building, which will be submitted to the Senate, is already complete.

He clarified that his role as Accounts Committee chair is not to look into past issues but to ensure that the Senate gets "the best Senate building at the soonest possible time at the least cost."

"Hindi ko trabaho in this committee to look for anomalies. My report will be factual," he added. ###/PR

President Ferdinand R. Marcos Jr. led the Labor Day celebration on Thursday, during which over 14,700 jobs were offered to job seekers in Pasay City. This was part of a larger nationwide effort to provide thousands of employment opportunities to Filipinos.

The Department of Labor and Employment (DOLE) said over 255,000 job vacancies were made available in simultaneous job fairs held nationwide. The program highlighted the administration's ongoing push to connect Filipinos directly with employers.

Since President Marcos took office in 2022, over 350,000 jobs have been created through various government programs and public-private partnerships, underscoring the administration's commitment to boosting the country's labor market and supporting Filipino workers.

In his speech at the job fair to mark the 123rd Labor Day celebrations, President Marcos described Filipino workers, both local and overseas, as the "foundations and pillars" of the societies where they live and labor. "Bilang selebrasyon ng Araw ng Manggagawa, mula ika-dalawampu't tatlo ng Abril hanggangikalawa ng Mayo, magsasagawa tayo ng job fairs sa 69 nalugar sa buong bansa," President Marcos said.

"Binabati ko po ang mga nakilahok at makikilahok sa jobfairs lalo na iyong mga nasa Regions 3, 4A, 6, 7, 10, 11, at sa lahat pa po namga kasama natin ngayon," he added.

Before the formal program of the Labor Day celebration began, various sectors and stakeholders presented to the President, in a walk-through, a range of job and training opportunities for Filipino workers, including jobs in manufacturing and hydroponics for urban gardening, an initiative aimed at promoting food sustainability.

The President was joined by government officials, led by Communications Secretary Jay Ruiz, Labor Secretary Bienvenido Laguesma, and other key business executives.

According to official data, the job fair assembled 103 local employers and companies offering about 14,207 job opportunities.

Further affirming the DOLE's steadfast commitment to provide workers social protection and support for a brighter and more sustainable future, distribution of livelihood assistance to organized labor unions, parents of child laborers, human rights victims, and payout to the Tulong Panghanapbuhay sa ating Disadvantaged/ Displaced (TUPAD) beneficiaries were at the forefront of the Labor Day celebrations.

The UPAD program is a community-based initiative that gives short-term emergency employment to disadvantaged workers.

The event also included giving out the award for Outstanding Workers of the Republic (TOWER) to exceptional blue- and white-collar employees whose work has significantly improved their company's performance and efficiency.

According to the DOLE, the TOWER Awards recognize non-supervisory workers for their innovations and contributions to productivity. Established in 1975 by the Rotary Club of Manila, the program aims to boost workers' morale, support career growth, and promote industrial harmony. | PND

PHILHEALTH...

In 2023, the DOH Research Institute for Tropical Medicine (RITM) recorded a 90% increase in malaria cases from the previous year's 3,245 to 6,248. In 2024 however, 72 out of 82 provinces in the Philippines have been declared malaria free. These developments underscore the necessity of recommitting to our efforts towards controlling and eliminating malaria. With this year's theme for World Malaria Day, "Malaria Ends With Us: Reinvest, Reimagine, Reignite", the World Health Organization (WHO) calls for a renewal of the global commitment to end malaria and urges collective efforts from the international policy level to community and individual action. In line with this, PhilHealth reaffirms the national commitment to eliminate malaria by 2030 through its benefits packages that cover services related to malaria. Earlier this year, PhilHealth increased its coverage for the following outpatient malaria services from Php 780 to Php 1,170: * Diagnostic Malaria Smears * Rapid Diagnostic Test * Medicines (Artemether +Lumefantrine) * Consultation, Patient Education, and Counseling Members can avail these benefits at 1,816 accredited facilities including primary care facilities, outpatient malaria centers, and accredited level 1, 2, and 3 hospitals. Additionally, coverage for malaria without complications is also provided at Php 5,460 at primary care facilities and Php 7,800 at hospitals. "Ang PhilHealth ay patuloy na sumusuporta na makamit ang ating Sustainable Development Goals (SDG) partikular sa pagsisikap na mapuksa ang malaria sa ating bansa. Sa pamamagitan ng Malaria Package, mas mabilis na magkakaroon ng access ang ating mga kababayan sa tamang pagsusuri, paggamot, at pag-iwas sa sakit na ito," said Dr. Edwin M. Mercado, PhilHealth Acting President and CEO./PR

Cavite City Celebrates Launch of New Public University

CAVITE CITY — Great news for Caviteños! The long-awaited Cavite City College building has officially been completed and will now be known as Cavite City University — a milestone made possible through a partnership between the Cavite City Local Government Unit (LGU) and Cavite State University (CvSU) Cavite City Campus.

The university is set to open its doors in the upcoming School Year 2025–2026, offering free education to qualified students — a major step forward in providing accessible, quality education to the youth of Cavite City.

Initially, the university will offer degree programs in Education and Business Management, with plans underway to introduce medical-related courses such as Medical Technology (MedTech) and Nursing in the near future.

The modern university building is located in Sea Breeze, Barangay 28, right next to the newly constructed Cavite City Public Hospital, forming part of a growing education and healthcare hub in the area.

Local officials hailed the project as proof that good governance leads to tangible progress. "Once again, we have proven that nothing is impossible for us Caviteños. With strong leadership and united efforts, we can build high-quality government programs that truly serve the people," said a city spokesperson.

The initiative stands as a proud example of responsible governance. "Cavite City — this is where your taxes go. Visible, felt, and beneficial," the statement added.

Applications for enrollment will begin soon, and local students are encouraged to take advantage of this life-changing opportunity./PR

DTI Rizal, SM Center Antipolo Downtown empower tenants thru a BCP Training Workshop

ANTIPOLO CITY, 29 April 2025 | The Department of Trade and Industry (DTI) Rizal, spearheaded by Ms. Sharon Dioco, Division Chief of Business Development, teamed up within SM Prime Holdings, Inc., successfully conducted a Business Continuity Planning (BCP) workshop yesterday at SM Center Antipolo Downtown.

The event saw the participation of approximately 12 active mall tenants who eagerly engaged with the initiative designed to enhance their disaster preparedness and business resilience capabilities.

The workshop forms part of a comprehensive program aimed at equipping SM tenants with vital knowledge on disaster management and business continuity strategies. Through this collaborative effort, business owners are guided in developing actionable plans and implementing practical measures to ensure rapid recovery and operational continuity during and after calamities.

A highlight of the workshop was a presentation of Mr. Enrilito Bernardo from the City Disaster Risk Reduction Office (CDRRMO), who discussed Antipolo's disaster plans and programs in detail. Participants engaged in interactive sessions and practical exercises that helped them apply BCP concepts to their specific business contexts.

Ms. Dioco's thorough presentation of the BCP Roadmap gave attendees a clear framework for developing their own continuity plans, covering everything from risk assessment to recovery strategies.

The workshop emphasized that effective business continuity planning is not just about disaster response but also about building organizational resilience that can transform potential threats into opportunities for improvement.
